Training: Information for Leaders or Parents Who Want to Volunteer

Leader Training

Online opportunities

Visit MyScouting.org to take all the basic trainings needed to get off to a successful start in new Cub Scout Volunteer position (Den Leaders, Committee Members, Committee Chairs, and Cubmasters). The following courses are needed to be fully trained:

- Youth Protection Training (must be completed within 30 days of joining)
- Fast Start Training
- This Is Scouting (Orientation)
- Leader Position-Specific Training

Ongoing opportunities

There is a local training team which conducts regularly scheduled Cub Scout leader training year round. Training classes are available for all positions to help leaders succeed. Every Cub Scout deserves a trained leader. Check with your pack leadership or visit our Website at www.indianwaters.org to find the dates and location of the next training course.

Here To Help You

✓ Roundtable is a monthly leaders' meeting for all adult volunteers in your area. You can get help with crafts, games, skits, and songs for use at den and pack meetings as well as many other ideas for successful Cub Scout programs. It's a great place to ask questions and share ideas.

✓ Den and Pack meeting resource guides.

✓ Many packs have a pack library that contains the leader books you need.

✓ All registered adults receive Scouting Magazine and The Smoke Signals (in print quarterly and online monthly).

✓ A Unit Commissioner is assigned to each Pack to mentor, coach and assist the Pack in delivering quality Scouting to their youth members. The Commissioner is a communications link between your Pack and the Scouting organization. Commissioners are available to help units succeed.

FUNDING YOUR SCOUTS IDEAL YEAR OF SCOUTING

- 70% of all sales goes to support Scouting (30-33% going to your Pack or Scout)
- Scouts have opportunities to earn several great prizes & incentives (Gift Cards, USC & Clemson Sports Clinics, Hats, and Mini Footballs)
- Scholarship Programs
- Scouts can sell individually with Online Sales when their unit does not participate in the Sale
